PREFACE

Rationale

This Work Immersion Portfolio will serve as a workbook for the students who will take up the course/subject Work Immersion in Senior High School. The framework is based on DepEd Order No. 30 s. 2017, entitled Guidelines for Work Immersion.

This workbook will essentially foster in-depth learning of the world of work and assessment of student's performance during work immersion.

Furthermore, the purpose of this portfolio includes but is not limited to the following:

For Student-Trainees:

- The portfolio will be used as a source of motivation and guide for work immersion.
- This will serve as a documentation and approval of lessons learned.
- This will provide feedback of their performance level.
- This will pave the way in preparation for real job application.

School:

- This contains regulations and conditions regarding contract between school and student.
- This is an information about curriculum and record of lessons learned.
- This is a record of student-trainees performance for assessment.

Agency / Company:

- This contains introduction of company in general.
- This enumerates training rules and regulations for training inside the agency/company.
- This provides feedback to and from student-trainees.

WORK IMMERSION

Grade: 12

No. of Hours: 80 hours

Pre-requisite: Should have taken at least 4 Specialized Subjects

Course Description:

Work Immersion is one of the course requirements for graduation. A Senior High School student must undergo Work Immersion in an industry that directly relates to the student's postsecondary goal. Through Work Immersion, the students are exposed to and become familiar with work-related environment related to their field of specialization to enhance their competence. Specifically, the students can: (i) gain relevant and practical industrial skills under the guidance of industry experts and workers; (ii) appreciate the importance and application of the principles and theories taught in school; (iii) enhance their technical knowledge and skills; (iv) enrich their skills in communications and human relations; (v) develop good working habits, attitudes, appreciation, and respect for work. These prepare them to meet the needs and challenges of employment or higher education after graduation.

Duties and Responsibilities of the Learner

In this course, the learners are expected to:

1. Attend Pre and Post Immersion Activities.
2. Report to the Work Immersion Partner Institution Supervisor during actual immersion.
3. Perform the duties and tasks as indicated in the prescribed template for work immersion list of tasks/activities; and
4. Prepare the documentations and reports required in the curriculum and by the Partner Institution.

Assessment

The Work Immersion Teacher and the Work Immersion Partner Institution Supervisor will jointly assess the learner's performance following the DepEd Order No. 8, s. 2015 Policy Guidelines on Classroom Assessment for the K to 12 Basic Education Program.

REQUEST FOR WORK IMMERSION

Sir / Madame:

This is to request permission from your good office to please allow Dianne Borlagdatan, a Senior High School - Grade 12 student, to undergo an 80 hours of WORK IMMERSION in your company/agency to acquire industrial ORIENTATION. The training period will start immediately upon your acceptance of the bearer under the terms and conditions as stipulated in the duly accomplished memorandum of agreement hereto attached for your confirmation.

Moreover, a student evaluation is provided where a student is to be assessed on his/her performance, attitude, and behavior to be attested by the supervisor. The Immersion Teacher and Trainer handling each field of specialization from our school will visit your establishment from time to time to find out how the student perform in the working area.

Thank you very much for your usual cooperation and assistance extended to the school.

ENDORSEMENT LETTER

Sir / Madame:

This is to introduce, Dianne Borlagdatan _____, who is a grade 12 Senior High School student enrolled in our school under the K to 12 programs with Strand in _____, and to further endorse (his/her) application with your company to undergo WORK IMMERSION for 80 hours as a requirement of the curriculum for graduation. We believe that schools must link up with industry to update, upgrade and make the education of our youth more relevant to the actual needs of the industry. It is in this regard that we request you to give such opportunities to our students by allowing them to do part time work with your company. Together with this letter is an Acceptance Form.

We request that said form be accomplished and returned to this office upon acceptance of our student in your company. We are confident that given the opportunity, our student will be an asset to your company.

Thank you for the favorable action and we look forward to a more fruitful linkage with you.

Very Truly Yours,

CHARLENE M. REGIS
Work Immersion Teacher

PRE- IMMERSION

Introduction

Before we immerse into the workplace, we will first understand the immersion process, proper work ethics, workplace safety, confidentiality, and effective conflict resolution and teamwork skills, as agreed in the DepEd Order No. 30 s. 2017. Also, we need to hone our skills in writing a resume, filling of application forms, and complying requirements.

Learner's Activity

1. Attends the pre-immersion orientation
2. As one to join the workforce in the future, you will need to do, prepare, and secure the following:
 - ❖ Resume
 - ❖ Essay on how to conduct oneself inside the company establishment during the immersion period
 - ❖ Application letter
 - ❖ Certificate of Employment
 - ❖ Medical Certificate

You will also prepare and accomplish own portfolio and update it from time to time because at the end of the work immersion you will need to present this portfolio. Make sure to attach needed documents, answer reflection leaf and paste pictures. Happy working 😊!

ACTIVITY 1 | The Worker

Work is on your way. Are you prepared to work? Do you have the potential, character, talents, and skills to take up the vigor of being a worker? What should you possess to become a good worker? How will you prepare for workimmersion?

The importance of preparation for work immersion, a requirement for Senior High School students. To become a good worker, one should possess certain qualities and skills. To prepare for work immersion, students should attend pre-immersion orientation, complete the necessary documents, and develop essential skills such as teamwork, communication, and time management.

This image shows a full page of blank primary-ruled paper. It features multiple sets of horizontal lines designed for handwriting practice. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These sets are repeated down the entire page, providing ample space for practicing letter formation and alignment. The paper is otherwise completely blank, with no margins, text, or other markings.

ACTIVITY 2

After the pre-immersion orientation, list the Do's and Don'ts employed in the workplace you are assigned.

DO's	DON'Ts
1. Speak clearly	Don't be noisy
2. Maintain Silence	Don't bring personal belongings
3. Present your ID card	Don't consume food
4. Respect others	Don't damage materials
5. Clear dues	Don't leave a mess
6. Respect the staff	Don't ignore deadlines
7. Take short study breaks	Don't hog space
8. Limit the number of books borrowed	Don't use the computer as a toy
10.
11.
12.
13.
14.
15.

Reflection

1. Do you agree to the company's policy guidelines, rules, and agreement? Support your answer.

I agree about the library's policy guidelines, rules, and agreement because the library policy is also for us so that we can use it properly.

2. Was there a rule that you think is not acceptable to you? Why?

Non.

CONFIDENTIALITY IN THE WORKPLACE

Suppose you work in a police station or a law firm and signed a confidentiality agreement regarding all their cases at hand, suddenly your friend who was a suspect to a crime asked you for some documents that are in your office's possession that may help him in his case. How would you deal with the situation?

In this scenario, dealing with a sensitive situation requires careful consideration. Familiarize yourself with the terms of the confidentiality agreement you signed, including any consequences for breaching confidentiality. Consider the potential consequences of disclosing the documents, including any impact on the investigation, your friend's case, and your professional reputation. Suggest alternative ways to support your friend, such as providing general information or resources that do not compromise confidentiality. And record the conversation with your friend, including the request for documents and your response, to maintain a paper trail.

MOCK JOB INTERVIEW

Here are some questions that you may encounter during an interview. Try answering them.

Interpersonal Skills

1. What are your strengths? What are your weaknesses?
2. What do you do when you know you are right, and your boss disagrees with you? Give me an example.
3. If your colleagues had an opportunity to tell us your primary strength what would that be? And your primary weakness-what would that be?
4. As a component of this position, you may have to work on a team on certain projects. Describe when you've worked on a team before and what, in your opinion, constitutes an effective team? What do you expect from others on the team and what do you need from others on the team?
5. What do you do when others resist or reject your ideas or actions?

Behavioral

1. Suppose you are in a situation where deadlines and priorities change frequently and rapidly. How would you handle it?
2. How do you know when you are stressed? What do you do to de-stress?
3. Tell me about a time when you were a part of a great team. What was your part in making the team effective?
4. Suppose your supervisor asked you to get information for them that you know is confidential and he/she should not have access to. What would you do?
5. Describe a time when you performed a task outside your perceived responsibilities. What was the task? Why did you perceive it to be outside your responsibilities? What was the outcome?

Creative Thinking

1. What's the best book you've read in the last year? Please take a minute and tell us what you liked about it.
2. What was the most creative thing you did in your last job?
3. What is your interpretation of "success?"
4. Describe an ideal work environment or "the perfect job."
5. In what way(s) do you express your personality in the workplace?

Leadership

1. How would you describe an ideal supervisor?
2. What strengths did you rely on in your last position to make you successful in your work?
3. As a supervisor, it is essential to motivate employees in your area. Sometimes this must be done using non-monetary means. Please describe some creative ways you have motivated and recognized employees in the past non-monetarily.
4. Explain, step by step, how you have coached an employee who had performance problems.
5. If you had to describe your own leadership style as directive, delegating, or coaching, which would you choose? Please explain why giving examples.

Optional Situational Questions: Please explain how you would handle the following situations:

1. You observe two of your employees arguing in a central location in the office.
2. One of your employees comes to you complaining about another employee and insisting they should no longer work together.
3. One of your employees comes to you to complain that he/she has a more demanding workload than another employee and wants the workload to be shifted.

General

1. Could you share with us a recent accomplishment of which you are most proud?
2. Tell us a bit about your work background, and then give us a description of how you think it relates to our current opening.
3. Why have you applied for this position?
4. What skill set do you think you would bring to this position?
5. Tell me about your present or last job. Why did you choose it? Why did you/do you want to leave?
6. What was your primary contribution/achievement? Biggest challenge?
7. What are your short-term and long-term goals?
8. In what areas would you like to develop further? What are your plans to do that?
9. What are some positive aspects of your last employment/employer? What are some negative aspects?
10. What do you know about our company?
11. Why should we hire YOU?
12. After learning about this opportunity, what made you take the next step and apply for the job?
13. If you are the successful applicant, how would you expect to be different after a year in this position?
14. Now that you have learned about our company and the position you are applying for, what hesitation or reluctance would you have in accepting this job if we offer it to you?

ACTIVITY 9 | Mock Job Interview

During the conduct of the mock job interview, do you think you did well?

What are the areas that you think you are good at and areas that needed to be improved?

Are you more confident now to answer during job interview?

ACTIVITY 10 | Profile of the Company/Establishment

Sample Company Profile

Owner Johanna Shandy served as a pioneer of cultural gentrification when she opened the café nearly a decade ago. Her father established the family's business in Paleo Market about 30 years ago. Johanna runs the café with her 2 sons. The café has 10 employees and seats 50 in its 60-meter location. Menu offers freshly baked pastries and desserts, homemade pastas, breakfast, salads, and various gourmet main courses like the famed Bouillabaisse dish.

Write description and profile of your work immersion area. Please include pictures.

Guiguinto Municipal Library is a public library in Guiguinto, Bulacan, Philippines. It was established in 1989 as a result of the initiative of a private citizen, Mrs. Estela Figueroa, and supported by the municipal government.⁴ The library was initially housed in the Sangguniang Bayan Session Hall and later moved to Guiguinto Central School for convenience and easy access.

Vision

A public library that serves as source of references through the collection and preservation of the town's historical and cultural heritage, and the development and utilization of library information technologies for the research needs and linkages of individual and institution customers both inside and outside the municipality.

Mission

- To facilitate informal education.
- To support and compliment research in all fields of endeavors
- To provide bibliographical access to the country's information resources.
- To provide wholesome recreation and beneficial use of leisure time.

Objectives

The Guiguinto Municipal Library aims to serve the information and literacy needs of the Guiguinto community. It was established in 1989 with the support of Mrs. Estela Figueroa, a retired librarian from the United States Information Service of the US Embassy in the Philippines, and Councilor Virgilio Idos.

Core Values

The library's core values include fostering literacy and a culture of reading, supporting learning and creativity, and ensuring community-centered services. These values align with broader strategic directions in library services, such as digital literacy, the digital library, and the exploration of new technologies to enhance access to knowledge.
